Continuation of 4(e) Other: The Appellant may request that prosecution be reopened if a new grounds is presented in the Examiner's answer; however, the appellant must file a reply that addresses each new ground of rejection set forth in the examiner's answer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.111 within two months from the mailing of the examiner's answer. The amendments presented in Appellant's response are not drawn to the new rejection presented in the Examiner's Answer. Rather, the amendments appear to be drawn to a different feature. Specifically, the new grounds of rejection presented in the Examiner's Answer was to address the interpretation of the term "service" as defined by the Specification. Appellant's amendments are not drawn to better define the term service, rather the claims recite features that deal with the structure of the hardware in a computing environment (i.e. separate devices). Therefore, the claims are not drawn to the new ground of rejection are are considered non-compliant.
